Bailey, Elizondo & Brinkman LLC announced Rick Luck has joined the firm as a director, focusing in the firm's restructuring advisory and litigation support practices. Luck will be based in their San Francisco Bay Area office, located in Walnut Creek, California.

Luck joins after 38 years with GE Capital in capital markets, lending, credit and management roles, and most recently as a senior vice president leading workouts for GE's loan restructuring group.

"We are extremely pleased to welcome Rick to our team. Rick's experience and long-standing relationships will be a tremendous value add to our efforts", said Howard Bailey, principal. "More than ever, clients need seasoned advisors who have experienced previous credit cycles to help them navigate their challenges and provide expert solutions."

Luck's nearly four decades of experience, encompasses all aspects of risk management from underwriting and structuring to portfolio management and problem loan workouts. Throughout his career, Luck has worked out of hundreds of troubled loans primarily to middle market companies both nationally and internationally, and in virtually every industry sector and sub-sector of the market.
